European Intelligence.

The Bank of England had arranged to ex change two millions sterling in gold with the Bank of France, for a similar amount in silver. The English funds were buoyant in silver. The English times were buoyant and higher. The Times hoped for an early reduction of the bank rate of discount. French rates were quoted in Paris on the 23d November at 70f. 16c.; Consols on the same day, at London, were at 93 \(\frac{1}{3}\)a93\(\frac{1}{2}\), for money and account. The money market was elightly easier. slightly easier.

It was stated that Count Walewski would succeed Count Persigny in the French Embassy at London.

The clergy of the Neapolitan provinces were paying homage to Victor Emanuel. The Cardinal Archbishop of Naples was about to return to his See return to his Sec.

Rumors of a new Sardinian loan were contradicted.

The Dowager Queen of Naples, with the young princess, had arrived at Rome.

The French were about to occupy Ter-

The Queen of Spain had presented a rich sword to General Guyon. It was reported that Guyon had declared that he would not deliver the material belonging to the Bourbon troops, who entered the Roman States, either to Francis or Emanuel. Negotiations were, however, pressing on the subject.

Vienna letters speak of a guarantee from the German Confederation, joined by Russia, for securing Venetia to Austria as Lecessary for the security of Germany.

The Bonday mail had reached England.

The Bombay mail had reached England. There were vague rumors of a probable reduction of 25 per cent. on the duty of cotton and yarns.

The result of the Presidental election was commented on in England with satisfaction. The Brazilian corvette Donna Isabel was wrecked on the coast of Barbary. One hundred seamen and twenty-three officers were

The siege of Gaeta continued. The Piedmontese bombarded the suburbs on the 12th November. The Neapolitan troops continued to fight resolutely, but defection among the officers was increasing. Col. Pianelli had surrendered his battalion of chasseurs to the Piedmontese. The Bourbon teops were paralyzed by the insubordination of their chiefs and the combision prevailing It was believed the complete evacuation of Gaeta had been resolved on. A castle near Munich was prepared for the reception of Francis II.

Explanations were said to have been asked of Piedmont by France, whether with its sanction Garibaldi signifies his intention to attack Venetia in the spring. The plan attributed to Garibaldi is to land at Dalmatis, the same properties the spring the spring the same properties. get into Montenegro, and raise the popula-tion, in order to compel the Austrians to keep considerable force on that side, while the Piedmontese are busy before Venetia.

A statement was current that England had intimated to France her intention to recognize the new kingdom, and Napoleon had signified his willingness, provided it be postponed till the king of Naples evacuates Gaeta. Reactionary movements were at work, and it is said that five Neapolitan provinces were in a state of seige on account of the movements of anti-annexionists. The province of Alvizzi had partly risen in insurection.

A dispatch from Naples says:-Francis II. burst a blood vessel on the 22d of November. A steamboat had arrived from Gaeta for medical aid. The Queen's mother and children had left for Rome.

A ministerial change was expected.
The British Board of Trade had commenced an inquiry into the burning of the Connaught.

In France, the prohibition against the exportation of iron was abolished.

It was stated that negotiations for the cession of Venetia had commenced. The Empress of Austria had arrived at Plymouth on her way to Madeira.

The Empress Eugenie was to return to France on the 10th of December.

President Buchanan on Foreign Affairs In his late Message to Congress, Presi dent Buchanan alludes to the affairs of the Republic with foreign countries. In speaking of the relations with Great Britain, he

Our relations with Great Britain are of the most friendly character. Since the commencement of my administration, the two dangerous questions arising from the Clayton and Bulwer treaty, and from the right of search claimed by the British Government, have been amicably and honorably adjusted. The discordant construction of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty between the two governments, which at different periods of the discussion bore a threatening aspect, have resulted in a final settlement, entirely satisfactory to this Government.

The only question of any importance which still remains open, is the disputed title between the two Governments to the island of San Juan, in the vicinity of Washington Territory. As this question is still under negotiation, it is not deemed advisable at the present to make any further allusion to the subject. Tho recent visit of the Prince of Wales, in appropriate character to the people of this country, has proved to the people of this country, has proved to be a most auspicious event in its consequences. It cannot fail to increase the kindred and kindly feeling of both countries, and their political and social intercourse with each other.

With France, Austria, Brazil, Russia, China ad Japan, Mr. Buchanan congratulates the country that it is at peace, and that her relations are of the most fraternal and friendly character. Spain and Mexico's affairs, however, are very complicated, and, much as it is to be regretted, remain without any prospects of a speedy adjustment.

Murder Most Foul.

We yesterday alluded briefly to the killing of Samuel T. Newell, at San Francisco. on New Year's Day, by a lawyer named Horace Smith. The cold-blooded ferocity of the murderer seems in have been such as no circumstances will excuse, and if justice is done, the rope is already spun that will cut short the perpetrator's career. The evidence of one of the witnesses on the coroner's jury says:

"I was standing at Stapleton's door in Sacramento Street, when a man passed very hastily and approached another, and looking him in the face, struck him with his fist, staggering him; the falling man attempted to recover, when he was again struck to the ground by the man recognized by Jasper F. Smith as the assailant; the stricken man then arose and ran towards Ashim's store; about two minutes afterward I went to the same store and saw deceased standing about same store and saw deceased standing about the centre of the store, leaning over the counter; he seemed faint and falling back-wards; Mr. Smith was standing at the side of the counter; holding his knife aloft he said: 'There, damn it, there is the way every gentleman ought to do;' there was also a sentence I did not hear; he seemed to speak of his wife and child; he then re-placed his knife; deceased then struggled to speak of his wife and chind; he then re-placed his knife; deceased then stringgled into the back room, and when he got there the blood was gushing from his bosom and he exclaimed that "he was dying."

Another witness testified: "I am in the employ of Ashim & Bro., 118 Sacramento street; was present when the difficulty occurred, my attention having been attracted by the noise of a man stumbling over something near the door; turned around and saw a man, said to be Mr. Newe I, coming in, and another man stand-ing over him with a big bowie-knife in his hand. Newell came running in and crying. Save me! he then ran to the end of a table, struck his foot and fell; after he fell the pursuer stabbed him with a knife, somewhere in the front part of the body; cannot say exactly where; I was disbody; cannot say exactly where; I was used that about twelve feet from the parties; I distinctly saw the blow given; heard the assailant say, 'There, you will slander my wrife again, will you?' Saw the blood follow the first blow with the knife; but saw no blood succeed the second stab."

The same statement of the comparited for

The accused was fully committed for trial on a charge of murdet.

Registration of Voters.

The clause in the Franchise Act of 1859, making our Parliament triennial, was a very wise provision to check an exercise of authority calculated to injure the Colony. It would, ..owever, have been much more advantageous to the Colony, and certainly more in accordance with public opinion, had it been biennial. As it is the Assembly cannot, in the present state or the law, lengthen its existence more than two years longer. Then hon members will have to restore the delegated authority which they exercise to their constituents; and test the value placed on their public services by an appeal for reelection. But vacancies may occur, as they have occurred since the last general election, for constituencies to choose once more a representative. Resignation, acceptance of office, or death, may make a constituency vacant. Fatality or a dispatch from Downing street, might signify a new administrator of the Government. Neither of these things are we insured against; and the latter is probably not unlikely. In that case it would be assuming too much to suppose that a new Governor would inaugurate his administration without an appeal to the people, so as to star as fairly as possible, or start with what conventionalis :: makes the best criterion to the opinions of the country. Under these circumstances, the opportunity should not be lost sight to register every available vote. in the present state of public feeling a very different return would be made if the whole body of the qualified electors were registered from what has been made for Esquiwalt town, or even the district. In both these elections legal voters were were prevented from casting their votes, though the preservation of interpolated lists by the perversity of the administration. Mr. Treasurer Gordon, neither the first nor the last time, would have been returned for Esquimait Town, except through what can only be considered a public fraud; legal voters being prevented from voting. With such facts staring the electors in the face, we should indeed be blind to our own interests, were we to allow the twelve days during which the lists remain open to pass without registration. Moreover should an Act of Incorporation be passed at any time during the year, and the necessity for such will soon again be forced on the attention of the Legislature, the franchise on which the civic officers would be elected would more than likely be the registered list of voters which closes on the 24th January; just twelve days hence. If our citizens therefore want City Councillors to represent their opinions, let them not be slack in registration. The new Act to amend the registration, fully confirms every position we have taken that the old lists were no good. And yet the same men who passed an Act implying that the old lists were no good, passed a solema vote in the Assembly declaring them good. With men made of such stuff, we but do our duty in warning the electors to be on their guard. Be prepared for new elections to the Assembly, either general or particular; and for to return a liheral and progressive town Council. The old saying, "who would be free themselves must strike the blow," will hold good here. If it is disregarded by the electors through neglecting to register their votes, they will have none but themselves to blame. AN OLD PIONEER GOING HOME,-Today one of our oldest pioneers, E. E. Langford Esq., takes his departure with his family in the Pacific mail steamer California, for England. It is some eight years, or ever, since he arrived in this country. At that time there was scarcely a house built outside the Fort. Since then, as if by magic, a flourishing town has sprung up around the Fort; and the country, for some distance, has become dotted with farmer's cottages. Mr. Langford may, therefore, be set down as one of our first settlers; and what is more, a worthy one, deserving and enjoying the good opinion of the entire colony. During his stay in the colony, he has been at the head of one of the establishments of the Puget Sound Company, and as such, aided in building up one of the most beautiful retreats in the country-known to everybody as Collingwood. Although in the service of the Paget Sound Company, which is but another self of the H dson Bay Company, he has never bowed to the feuchal usages of its local lordlings. As an honest, straightforward, high-spirited English gentlemen, he was ever found on the side of those sound conservative principles which give character to the British people the world over. So far as mere local political divisions are concerned, he was a Reformer; and Reformer here only means a supporter of time-honored English usages as contrasted with the policy of a feudal corporation. With the honor then of being one of the first settlers, history must also ascribe to him the honor of being one of our first Reformers. By his social influence, Mr. Langford has done much to soften the rude features of pioneer life which appeared on his arrival, and give the tone of modern English society to the colony. Soon after his arrival he was commissioned as a magistrate, and up to his departure has acted as chairman of the Sessions and Assizes. In him the people ever found an honest judge; one who would never turn to the right or left, but a judge who did his duty without fear, favor or affection. In 1856, Mr. Langford was elected to the first Assembly, from Victoria District; but the political agents of the monopoly deprived him of his seat. At the last election he offered himself as candidate for the town, but partially through the malignant influence of men high in authority, he withdrew, to the regret of the electors. But although he did not formally receive the suffrages of his countrymen, he remained still the representative of their feelings and cherished by the populace as one of the noblest works of God-an honest man. Mr. Langford is well worthy a niche in the early history of the colony. He has occupied a prominent place, both politically and socially, in our small community; and it is with many regrets that we consent to his departure. He bids farewell to-day to our "tight-girt isle " forever. May the kind wishes of his hosts of friends left behind follow him on his voyage; and amid the hawthorns and primroses of "Merrie England," may be reap their fondest wishes, honored and esteemed as he is here, one of the first pioneers of Vancouver Island.

Won'r Explode.—We take great pleasure in stating that gunpowder won't explode, provided it is left alone This is not an old discovery; but for some reason or other our authorities were ignorant of the fact, and placed a sentinel over the magazine. When they were illuminated in relation to such an important discovery in chemistry, or who did it-whether the shade of Humphrey Davey or not, we are totally at a loss for information, although we called on the faculty of quidnunes. The fact however has been supported by occular demonstration; for yesterday afternoon not a soul was visible around the magazine, not even a gwardsman with his double-barrelled shooting iron. True, a stray Siwash of the masculine or feminine gender, now and again, and occasionally one of the rulting caste, worked their way np and down Quagmire alley (a contraction of View street) leaving the magazine unmolested, or, in the language of Old Bullion, "solitary and alone." Our readers may now fall into the arms of Somnus totally divested from all tear of not waking up till the day of judgment. It is a great discovery that a few tons of powder won't explode, even in the centre of a town of three thonsand people, provided it is left alone. It is gratifying to us to state, and no doubt it will be consoling to weak perve, that the door is constructed in antique style from fire-proof tin, so thick it can be ribboned with a jackknife; and the locks, though they might give way to a gentle rap from a cane, would in all probability put to scorn the skill of the renowned Bobbs, and dety an attack from a foot-pad, as they are the best kind of sixpenny padlocks, about the size used on dogcollars; in short even gunpowder would not start them, for it won't explode if left

THE BRITISH COLONIST

Saturday Morning, Jan. 12, 1861.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. The Wrecks.

H. M. S. Plumper, Capt. Richards, left Esquimalt yesterday morning, bound for the Northern coast of the Island, on a search for the missing gunboat, an account of the mysterious disappearance of which we chronicled yesterday, and to render every assistance in her power possible, to any disabled vessel she may fall in with. The Plumper will also visit and compel the Indians holding three of the crew of the Florencia in captivity to give them up. The sum demanded for their ransom by the savage captors, is five dollars each-in all fifteen dollars. The Plumper, besides searching Nootka Sound, will, if unsuccessful, proceed northward, and endeavor to glean intelligence of the Forward's fate. There is still hope that she is stowed away in some outof the way nook with disabled engines; or that she has gone around to the the North of the Island under sail. We ardently trust that the Plumper will be successful in her search, and thereby relieve the many aching hearts in our midst, who are at present bowed down with grief at the presumed loss of their relatives and friends. Should our worst fears be confirmed, the loss of the gunboat will be one of the most terrible calamities that has ever occurred on the coast, and many a seat at fireside circles will be left vacant forever.

THE FLORENCIA'S WRECK.

In the statement from John Larkin, (a very intelligent man, and one of the Florencia's crew,) published yesterday, we alluded to the conduct of Capt. Stewart, Indian Agent at Euculet, towards him and his distressed companions. The wreck of the Florencia, as he states, was knocked down by Lankenau, the first mate, to Capt. S. for $100-the mate acting as auctioneer. The men had claims against the vessel for wages; and in addition to that sum, the first mate, at the time she capsized (Nov. 12th,) promised the crew each $100, in case they would stand by her. They did so, and in order to cancel that claim, Captain Stewart gave them each an order on Norris, Cox & Co., for $16 66, reducing the sum promised to that amount, by some rule of arithmetic not understood, we hope, by any one besides himself. The following is a copy of the order held by John Larkin:

order held by John Larkin:

B. No. 5. Messrs. Norris Cox—Please
pay Jno. Larkin, or order, the sum of $16 66 (sixteen dollars 66-100,) and charge the same to my account.

(Signed,)
C. E. STEWART.

Jan. 4, 1861, Eucluet, V. I.
This order is given in consideration of making the $100 promised me null and void.

At the time the wreck was sold, the parties present were the first and second mates, the steward, Larkin, and the remaining two seamen, Capt. Stewart, four Kanakas belonging to the brig Consort, and several Indians, attracted to the spot by the novelty of the scene. Capt. S., being the only person present not connected with the wreck, besides the Kanakas and the Indians, bid $100 for the whole concern, and, there being no other bidder, obtained the prize without opposition.

But after the "sale" was over, the men urged their claims against the wreck for wages due, and in order to satisfy them and · obtain a quit claim, the Captain gave each a note, payable in six months after date, for $50; but prudently introduced a "saving clause :"

A. No. 4. Six months after date I promise to pay Jno. Larkin, or order, the sum of $50, (fifty dollars), providing the same be realized from the hull and cargo of the Peruvian brig Florenia.

(signed,) C. E. STEWART. Jan. 4, 1861, Eucluet, V. I.

The survivors thinking that, if they did not accept the note offered, they would get nothing, and being assured by Captain Stewart that if they did not sign off, he would give them no assistance to get away from Euclust, finally did as he desired; and Capt. Stewart remains, up to the present moment, "monarch of all he surveys" connected with the unfortunate brigantine. As woon as the Plumper arrives at Eucluet, however, he will receive an invitation to visit Victoria, and explain away (if he can) his singular conduct. Steps have been taken here to render the "sale" a nullity by the officers of the Crown.

THE BARK IONA .- This bark, arrived yesterday from San Francisco, was boarded by a pilot in the outer harbor on Thursday evening, but declined taking one. Subsequently, she went on a rock; when Pilot Pike went to her assistance and brought her safely into harbor the following morning.

CARY-NIAS .- This interesting case was argued by Mr. Cary and Mr. McCreight for the plaintiff, and by Mr. Ring for the defendant, yesterday. Its further consideration was then postponed till Monday next for the introduction of further testimony.

COURT OF Assizes .- This Court will be held on the 28th of the present month. The cases of Regina vs. Millington, for murder, and of Regina vs. Herbert, for arson, will be then tried.

THE BRODERICK WILL.-This instrument is now declared to be a gross forgery, in which Geo. Wilkes, Judge Phillips, J. J. Hoff, and others, were implicated.

HEAVILY FINED .- Captain Hugh McKay, master and owner of the schooner Surprise, was yesterday convicted in the Police Court of having stolen a number of blankets from the wreck of the bark Nannette, and sentenced to pay a fine of $250. The money was promptly paid.

Coming Up .- Capt. Baker, and a Frenchman, name unknown, who were on board the Florencia when she was capsized, over two months ago, we learn, are on their way to this port, on the schooner Meg Mer-

PHILLIPS AND GREEN .- This case for so long a time in the Chancery, will come up for final judgment on Tuesday next.

Auction .- This morning, at 11 o'clock, J. A. McCrea will sell by auction, on Union Wharf, 200 bales of California hay.

DAMAGED GOODS .- P. M. Backus will sell this morning, an 11 o'clock, another large lot of damaged goods.

Prospects for a California Immigration

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3, 1861.

EDITOR BRITISH COLUNIST :-- As a pioneer of civilization in British Columbia, and feeling, from a thorough knowledge of its resources, an interest in that Colony, I have endeavored, by conversing with miners and traders here to ascertain the exact state of their feelings towards the newly discovered gold regions of the North. The result of my inquiries, I believe, justifies me in saying that the immigration during the succeeding year from this place will not be heavy. I had expected, (knowing the richness of the Cariboo and Rock Creek sec-tions) that the truth need only be promul-gated to insure a healthy flow of immigration during the present year. But I lear that my previous expectations will not be realized. The late discoveries of rich placer, ravine, and bar diggings, in the Cariboo country, and on the banks of the Quesnelle River, have, it is very true, created much remark here; but those whose interest it is to do so do not fail to keep before the peo-ple the ill success of many of the pioneers to British Columbia in 1858-759; and the remembrance of days that are passed for-ever is called up to prevent the surplus population of this country from again "trying their luck" in your sister Colony. Her lately "struck" resources of mineral and agricultural wealth, require no false coloring to enable her eventually to rank as one of the first gold producing countries of the world; neither should her enemies resort to a system of detraction having no founda-tion in fact to injure her prospects.

Let the country stand or fall upon its own ments. The greater portion of the immigra-tion this year from here will be composed of those who, having once tested the quali-ties of the mines are willing to return. Many of these will bring their friends; and some few of the floating population will seek their fortune in the new Eldorado; but beyond these do not look for many. In Oregon, the feeling in favor of your mines, is different, and a large accession to your population of honest, hard-working miners from that State may be looked for. I stopped three days at Pertland on my way hither, and found that a perfect fever is manifesting itself among the inhabitants regarding Rock Creek and Cariboo. Every one that had visited those sections spoke well of them, and eager inquiry was heard from all quarters as to the best route or means of reaching there. I met several packers at Pertland purchasing goods for the Northern mines, intending to send them via the Dalles. The good feeling towards your mines was unanimous; and I only wish I could see the same disposition to condemning manifesting itself here.

J. H. B. could see the same disposition to test before

FISTIANA.-The Benicia Boy, according to a statement published in the New York Clipper, is anxious to re-enter the ring in a contest with Hurst, the "Saleybridge Infant," who has just conquered Tom Paddook, and now wears the belt of England. Hee-nan prefers that this gentle infant (who stands six feet three inches in his stockings) should come to America to be thrashed, and proposes to offer him $1,000 for his trouble; but he is willing to fight him anywhere for $5,000 aside—and the belt. Fistic circles are coosiderably exercised at this announce-Somerhing New .- The crack regiment of the New York Volunteers—the Seventh of the National Guard—has been invited to visit England. £25,000 will be raised to defray their expenses. They will be received and entertained by the Volunteer corps of England.

Holloway's Pills - Billious Disorders .-Holloway's Pfilis - Billious Disorders.—
If there be any one medicine in the world that is really a specific remedy for all disorders of the liver, it is these far-famed Pills. Any irregularities of the system produced by too much or too little bile, or from the bile being of a depraved quality, are in-fallibly corrected by a course of this in-comparable medicine, which rapidly corrects all the grosser humors of the body, purifies and improves the blood, clears the head, and gives lasting tone to the enfeebled stomach, enabling that organ so thoroughly to perfect digestion that the food completely assimulates, the blood is enriched, and every fibre of the body thus feels the wholesome influence of these renovating Pills.

CITY TRADE REPORT.

FRIDAY Evening, Jan. 11th, 1860. We noticed considerable goods landing from the bark "Architect" yesterday and to-day, comprising a full assortment of groceries, and general merchandise. The "Architect" brought some self-rising Flour, which is held at $7 p bbl. Flour is of slow sale, although firm in price. We quote Oregon superfine at $462%; do Extra, $5; Golden Gate Milis, superfine, $575; Pacific Mills, in half sks, for baker's use, $7, with light sales. A choice article of Eastern Bacon readily commands from 17cm174c: Oregon Meats, steady at former quotations. China Sugar No. 1 is dull sale at 8jc; and China Rice No. 1, is firm at 61c. Candles steady at 27c@30c. There is very little doing in the market, beyond the usual trade for local and Sound consumption.

There are two periods, especially in Woman's life, which require for safe passage, judgment and attention. Irregularity is apt at those critical times to take place, and to lay the foundation of intree discase. These Pills, safe in action, and effective in result, should be taken at certain periods, and the issue will be marvellous both to the young and the middle aged. They prevent nervousness, hysterics, dropsy, and a host of similar serious disorders, by expelling all imparities from the system, therefore none should ever be without them.

Blood to the Head—Diseases of the Heart.

More persons die suddenly from diseases of the heart than the unlearned suppose: in such complaints, the bowels should always be kept well open, as also where there is a tendency of blood to the head. These celebrated Pills purify the blood in an extraordinary manner, and should be taken in copious doses when such symptoms occur, taking care not to overload the stomach; by this means all danger is quickly averted.

Children's Complaints.

Children's Complaints.

Children's Complaints.

It is not generally known, but such is the fact, that children require medicine oftener than their parents. Three-tourths of the children die before they attain the age of eight years. Let mothers, then, be wise, and give to their children small doses of these invaluable Pills once or twice every week, in such quantity as may act gently upon the system twice in the twenty-tour hours. For infants, a Pill may be crusted and given as a powder in a little water. The gross humors that are constantly floating about in the blood of children, the forerunders of so many complaints, will thus be expelled, and the lives of thousands saved and preserved to their parents.

THE WORLD'S FRIEND: Holloway's Ointment.

A Cure for Piles and Fistulas.

A Cure for Files and Fistulas.

Inflammation of sensitive parts, piles, fistalas, and such like painful diseases may be presently relieved, and ultimately cured, by the proper and diligent use of this cooling and healing Oliment, whose action should, in such cases, be assisted by indicious doses of Filis: ere many days have elapsed the anxious patient will experience a wonderful degree of ease from this treatment. They are equally suitable to both sexes, and all ages.

Coughs, Colds, and Asthma.

Coughs, Colds, and Asthma.

These complaints of the chest come on with alarming frequency. The Ointment should assiduously be rubbed at least twice a day on the chest and between the shoulders, when the violence of all symptoms will gradually give way, the breathing become longer, and the oppression less. No medicines are more efficient in chest complaints, none can be used with equal safety and certainty. Both Pills and Ointment are accompanied by very clear and simple directions for using them.

had been in the Indiranty and was actually turned out as incurable, on his way home to Kilrush, be purchased at Emis. Holloway's Pills and Ontment, for, as he said, it could not be worse with him. This sam, said Mr. Cox, became by their use as sound and as healthy as any main the room. These celebrated Pills and Ontroent will cure any wound, sore, or ulcer, however long studding, it properly used accordage to the printed directions.

Gout and Rheumatism.

The essence of these diseases lie in the blood, which has, floating through each vessel, the pain-giving poison, which irritates and inflames every tissue it comes in contact with and produces the hot, swolcin, elastic enlargement about the Joints so characteristic of gouty diseases. The philosophy of cure consists in overcoming this deprayity in the blood, which rapidly purified by the use of the Pills. The Onitment, when rubbed upon the skin, penetrates the Fills, and seen effects a cure.

Dropsy, Swollen Legs or Ankles.

The various kinds of dropsies, whether windy or watery, arise from some obstruction to the free circulation though the blood vessels or lymphatics, or depend on the inclaused state of some secreting surface. It is a surface, and the secretical state of some secreting surface, and secretically upon the blood, the absorbents and secretions, with a gower that no dropsy however inveterate, can long resist. They regulate the proper flow at blood to every organ, and purify it likewise.—they filter out everything that is morbid or injurious,—they there are few good, they are powerlies for evil. They do not contain mercury or any noxious substances. They are safely and certainly.

Greeleys' Bourbon Bitters.

TIEBLEYS' BOURDON Bitters.
THE POPULARITY OF THESE BITI ters is justly due to the purity of the materials of which they are prepared, and the delicate combination of simple alteratives and tonics so well calculated to act upon every part of the digestive organs, and through them to reach and cure all complaints arising from 2 diseased condition of the Stomach and Bowels.

arising from a diseased condition of the Stonnen and Bowels.

GREELEYS: BOURBON WHISKEY BITTERS are highly nourishing and fattening, and as a Tonic for old people, delicate ladies, consumptive patients, and all weakly persons, they cannot be surpased. In all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong, healthy tone to the system. For the curre of Dyspepsia, Indigection, Nervous Diseases, Liver Complaints, Weakness or Debility, Flatulency and Nauca, and all complaints consequent upon a disordered state of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, they are not equaled. Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.—No medicine has ever achieved a higher reputation. In every section of the country its merits are known and fully acknowledged. The leading physicians in the country have expressed their warm approval of this preparation, as uniting all the best qualities of a tonic and invigorator, without kindling an appetite for alcoholic fuguors. In cases of diseases of the digestive organs, to which all unacedinated persons are from necessity, exposed, as the proper diet cannot at all three be had, the Bitters will be iound to be the quickest corrective and most reliable remedy yet discovered. Diarrhosa, Dysentery, and the various billious and intermittent leve's all yield to the curative properties of this medicine. No person should be without the Bitters a ingle day.

Cheinnati, March 4. 1859.—Messer, A. L. Sowill &
Co—Dear Sirs: This is to certife that my two children have been afflicted with SCROFULOUS VICERS. I tried your Blood and Liver Syrup, which cared then in a remarkably short time. My wife has been afflicted for many years with the most treatblesome disease—Tetter and lithermatism—and has used a good many remedies, which have failed to cure her; this remedy has made a radical cure. If any one
